

August 25, 2022

Dear Leader in Christ,

Adam Welch is a man of God that has enriched my life by his example and words since I met him over ten years ago. I am impressed with his godly devotion to prayer, worship, his family and whatever assignment God gives him. He is not afraid of a new challenge and often does what others only dream of because of his faith in God.

He and his wife are sacrificial givers to those less fortunate. They are adoptive parents and have fully embraced all the extra expense and work involved with raising a large family.

His ministry is built on obedience to God, Bible directives and the leadership of the Holy Spirit. His life runs counter to the secular culture and very much in alignment with the kingdom of God.

It is my honor to know him and co-labor with him in Christ.

Hal S. Linhardt

IEF Director

International Evangelists' Fellowship

7108 River Birch Dr., Raleigh, NC 27613

www.iefellowship.org