

Response to the Gospel

Jesus and the Apostle Peter both spoke of the born-again experience. Each person must experience the miracle of heart transformation by the Holy Spirit in order to be reconciled to God and gain entrance into His Kingdom. No one can be expected to live the Christian life with freedom from sin and power in the Holy Spirit without properly responding to the Gospel message. There are specific steps each one of us must take both for personal salvation and as a good mid-wife in leading people to the new birth in Christ.
